6.2. Invoicing

For online orders, the Client will not be required to make any advance payment.

Unless already paid by the Client according to the provisions set forth hereinabove, the Client shall pay any invoices due to Cegid without discount within thirty (30) days of the invoice's issuance date, by either wire transfer or direct debit. For direct debit, the Client agrees to provide its bank details (IBAN and BIC) and to complete the SEPA Mandate in paper or electronic form, and if the Client successively signs several contracts and chooses to pay Cegid by direct debit each time a payment is due, the Client shall thereby accept that each of the contracts will be regulated by a single direct debit mandate, of which the amount may vary, in light of the addition and termination of other contracts over time.

7.2. Client custom

Should the Client wish Cegid to comply with any of the Client's particular methods concerning the payment of invoices issued under the Agreement (for example, the inclusion of a particular reference on each invoice or the implementation of a particular communication process with respect to such invoices, etc.), the Client must notify Cegid of such particularities before execution of the Agreement so that Cegid can take such requests into account and potentially include such particular provisions into specific terms and conditions to the Agreement. Failure on the Client's part to provide such notice to Cegid before execution shall under no circumstances constitute grounds for nonpayment or delay in payment by the Client of any invoices due Cegid.

7.3. Payment default

Should the Client default on its obligation to pay the price agreed between the Parties, Cegid reserves the right fifteen (15) days after sending notice via registered mail formally demanding payment (and provided that the Client makes no payment or only a partial payment after receipt of such formal demand), to immediately suspend execution of the Professional Services and any other existing services until payment of the full amount due is remitted, and/or to terminate the Agreement as of right without any need for any further formal notice, without prejudice to any other recourse which Cegid may have against the Client to obtain compensation for the loss suffered by the default.

Moreover, Cegid may invoice the Client for late payments interest equal 5 percentage points above HSBC PLC's base rate from time to time without any prior reminder or formal notice being necessary. If the Client fails to make a payment due to Cegid under this Agreement, the Client shall also pay Cegid, as liquidated damages, £40 for the collection costs incurred by Cegid. The Parties confirm that these liquidated damages are reasonable and proportionate to protect Cegid's interest in collecting the overdue amount.

Nonpayment by the Client of an invoice that is due shall entitle Cegid to require payment of all other outstanding invoices, even if they are not yet due.

All fees following the bank's rejection of the Client's payment shall remain the financial responsibility of the latter.

7.4. General

Cegid reserves the right to decide how partial payments made by the Client are deducted from amounts due to Cegid. The Parties acknowledge that the prices in the Agreement reflects the distribution of risks under the Agreement and the economic balance sought by the Parties, and that the Agreement would not have been concluded under these conditions without the liability limitations defined herein. CLAUSE 12. WARRANTIES PROVIDED BY THE CLIENT

CLAUSE 14. FORCE MAJEURE

Neither Party shall be responsible for a breach of any of its contractual obligations if it was prevented from fulfilling said obligations by a Force Majeure Event.

Force Majeure Event means any circumstance not within a Party's reasonable control including, without limitation acts of God, flood, drought, earthquake or other natural disaster; epidemic or pandemic; terrorist attack, civil war, civil commotion or riots, war, threat of or preparation for war, armed conflict, imposition of sanctions, embargo, or breaking off of diplomatic relations; nuclear, chemical or biological contamination or sonic boom; any law or any action taken by a government or public authority, including without limitation imposing an export or import restriction, quota or prohibition, or failing to grant a necessary license or consent; collapse of buildings, fire, explosion or accident; any labor or trade dispute, strikes, industrial action or lockouts (other than in each case by the Party seeking to rely on this clause, or companies in the same group as that Party); non-performance by suppliers or subcontractors (other than by companies in the same group as the Party seeking to rely on this clause); and interruption or failure of utility service, telecommunication services and telecommunication networks (other than by companies in the same group as the party seeking to rely on this clause).

In these cases, the Party invoking the Force Majeure Event shall notify the other Party by registered mail as promptly as possible of the occurrence of such event and the necessary extension of the deadlines for fulfillment of its obligations.

If the impediment is temporary, fulfillment of the obligation is suspended until the Party invoking the Force Majeure Event is no longer impeded by such Force Majeure Event. The Party invoking the Force Majeure Event shall keep the other Party informed and undertakes to make every effort to limit the duration of the suspension. If the suspension continues beyond three (3) months, either of the Parties may terminate the Agreement without liability by notice to the other Party by registered mail.
